REFUSAL OF OUTLINE PLANNING PERMISSION

Town and Country Planning Act 1990

Part I – Particulars of application

Application No:	S26/0237
Date Received:	10th February 2026
Applicant:	Mr P M King
Proposal:	Outline planning application for a residential development with all matters reserved except for access
Location:	Land Adjacent Heatherway House Fenton Road Stubton Lincolnshire NG23 5DB
Decision/Date	10th July 2026

Part II – Particulars of decision

The South Kesteven District Council hereby give notice in pursuance of the provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 that permission has been refused for the carrying out of the development referred to in Part I hereof, for the following reason(s):

- 1 The proposed development would, as a matter of principle, result in a backland form of development that would be contrary to the prevailing form of the existing settlement, resulting in significant harm to the rural character and appearance of the site and surrounding area. The identified harm would be contrary to Policy DE1 of the adopted Local Plan, Policy BE2 of the made Stubton Neighbourhood Plan and Section 12 of the National Planning Policy Framework. The material considerations in this case, including tilted balance and the public benefits associated with the erection of up to 5 dwellings, would not outweigh the identified harm.

Note(s) to Applicant:

1. Your attention is drawn to the attached notes explaining your rights of appeal regarding this decision.

Cont/...

- 2 There is a fundamental objection to the proposal and it is considered that this cannot be overcome. Consideration has not been delayed by discussions which cannot resolve the reasons for refusal. The decision therefore accords with paragraphs 38 of the National Planning Policy Framework.

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT PROCEDURE ORDER 2015 TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

Appeals to the Secretary of State

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same, or substantially the same, land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice and you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.

If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same, or substantially the same, land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of the service of the enforcement notice or within six months of the date of this notice (whichever period expires earlier).

If you want to appeal against other decisions, except for Householders which are 12 weeks, then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice. Appeals should be submitted using a form that you can get from The Planning Inspectorate, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by him.

Purchase Notices

If either the local planning authority or the Secretary of State for the Environment refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted.

In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the District Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
